

DC Area COVID-19 Relief Food Resources

Martha's Table (1474 Columbia Rd NW, Washington, DC & 2375 Elvans Rd SE, Washington, DC, 202-328-6608) is providing families with children enrolled in education and family visiting programs at the organization a weekly stipend of $750, grocery store gift cards supplementing $15 a day, and a supply of diapers, wipes, and formula.

DC Central Kitchen (425 2nd St NW, Washington, DC, 202-234-0707) is serving to-go breakfasts and lunches through partnerships with local nonprofits, faith communities, and the Office of the State Superintendent of Education (OSSE) and providing 200+ meals a day to the elderly in DC's Ward 7.

Central Union Mission remains open and fully functioning providing shelter, medical treatment and meals to the homeless population of Washington DC.

Arlington Food Access Center (2708 S Nelson St, Arlington, VA, 703-845-8486) has extended its hours to reduce crowding and lines and is delivering food directly to the homes of elderly community members.

Capital Area Food Bank (4900 Puerto Rico Ave NE, Washington, DC, 202-644-9800) is providing free to-go meals for students and is providing pop-up pantries around the city for those who cannot afford to buy groceries. Those interested in exact locations and hours can call the number listed.

Good Company Donuts and Cafe (672 N. Glebe Road, Arlington, VA 703-243-3000) is offering a free meal off the kids menu (plus a doughnut!) to school-aged children from Monday through Friday, as long as Arlington schools are not open. Additionally, the cafe is offering free delivery to seniors who order purchases above $20.

LEON (1724 L St NW, Washington, DC, 202-813-3867) is offering free meals to all children and half-price meals for health care workers.

MGM Roast Beef (905 Brentwood Rd NE, Washington, DC, 202-248-0389) is offering free sandwiches or salads to any child 12 and younger, and free meals to hospital workers with ID.

Bayou Bakery (1515 N Courthouse Rd, Arlington, VA 703-243-2410) is serving grab-and-go vegetarian lunches to Arlington County students and their families every weekday from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. until schools reopen.

Silver Diner (9811 Washingtonian Blvd suite 1-10, Gaithersburg, MD, 301-321-3530) is offering free meals every weekday from 2 to 4 p.m., while supplies ask. Families can ask for as many meals as needed.

Good Stuff Eatery (3291 M St NW, Washington, DC, 202-337-4663 & 303 Pennsylvania Ave. SE, Washington, DC, 202-543-8222) is offering free food for kids while schools are closed, as long as they're with an adult who buys a full meal. (There's a two-kid limit for the offer.)

We, The Pizza (305 Pennsylvania Ave. SE, Washington, DC, 202-544-4008, & 4201 Wilson Blvd Ste # 120, Arlington, VA, 703-269-2222) is offering free food for kids while schools are closed, as long as they're with an adult who buys a full meal. (There's a two-kid limit for the offer.)

Santa Rosa Taqueria (313 Pennsylvania Ave. SE, Washington, DC, 202-450-4800) is offering free food for kids while schools are closed, as long as they're with an adult who buys a full meal. (There's a two-kid limit for the offer.)

Hook Hall (3400 Georgia Ave NW, Washington, DC, 202-629-4339) is offering assistance to hospitality workers including professional development programming, employment services information, and free meals. Hook Hall is also partnering with Kellogg's to provide 150 meals each day for breakfast (8 a.m. to 10 a.m.) and dinner (2 p.m. to 6 p.m.) Monday through Sunday, starting on March 23.

Little Miner Taco (3809 Rhode Island Ave, Brentwood, MD, 301-288-3553) is offering one meal off the kids menu daily for DCPS or Maryland students as long as their schools remain closed.

Medium Rare (3500 Connecticut Ave NW, Washington, DC, 202-237-1432, 3601 Fairfax Dr, Arlington, VA, 703-243-2020, 4904 Fairmont Ave, Bethesda, MD, 301-215-8379) is delivering dinner to any local person over 70 who is quarantined, whether it's a self-quarantine or they were mandated by a health official, with the help of volunteer drivers. Medium Rare appears to have been somewhat flexible about the age cutoff, depending on need.

Milk and Honey (5832 Georgia Ave NW, Washington, DC, 202-849-8740, 10280 Baltimore Ave, College Park, MD, 301-477-2195, 12500 Fairwood Pkwy, Bowie, MD, 240-260-3141) is offering free breakfast to students. Meals include cereal, waffles, pancakes, and fresh fruit, Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.

Po Boy Jim (709 H St NE, Washington, DC, 202-621-7071) is offering free meals off its kids menu.

Rasa (1247 First St SE, Washington, DC, 202-804-5678) is offering free take-out meals for all school children under the age of 18, hospital workers who can provide a valid ID, and its own staffers and their families.

Succotash (915 F St NW, Washington, DC, 202-849-6933) is offering free dinner for those in the hospitality industry who have been laid off or has had a significant reduction in hours or pay. It's available between 5 and 8 p.m. on a first-come, first-serve basis. Limit two meals per person.

World Central Kitchen (1342 Florida ave NW, Washington, DC, 202-844-6330) is providing free fresh meals to families and healthcare workers around the country and in Washington, DC.

